LOOP Talks

Wednesday 1 June | Fundació Tapies, 6pm – 7.30pm (free access)

Thursday 2 June | C/Pelai 28, 9.30am – 12.30pm

Friday 3 June | C/Pelai 28, 9.30am – 2.30pm

Saturday 4 June | C/Pelai 28, 1.30pm – 2.30pm

Conforming to the guiding theme of the Festival, this year's edition of the Talks will focus on the still-debated relationship between artists' films and cinema. Spanning those practices that have been variously identified as "expanded cinema", "cinema of exhibition" or "gallery film", the debates will address the encounter or conflation between the two industries and question whether or not they could cohabit the same ecosystem.

The main lines of investigation will be the following:

- Exhibiting Cinema, or the eternal debate on how to better display artists' films and videos in the gallery space, relate with cinematic codes and implement new curatorial practices.
- Modes of Film Practice, or the "cluster of historically bound institutions, practices and concepts that form a context within which cinematic media are used" and that can be deployed to understand avant-garde and experimental filmmaking as well as artists' films
- Artists in Transition, or a study of those creative practices that sit on the fence between video art and cinema, through lively conversations between artists / artists and curators.
